

September 3, 2017

A Lesson from Farmer Jones

A Lesson from Farmer Jones

Putting Faith to Work (part 11)

James 5:7-12

James 5:7-12

Vv. 7-8 Be patient & steadfast for the Lord is coming	v.9 Watch your words in light of the coming judgment
vv.10-11 Be patient & steadfast for the Lord is coming	v. 12 Watch your words in light of the coming judgment

Be patient & steadfast for the Lord is coming (vv.7-8)

- No one knows the day of _____
- _____ in Scripture
- God's account of time is _____ than ours
- Overall emphasis —Be _____!

Watch your words in light of judgment (v.9)

Practical Action Points:

- Believe the _____ in people
- If you have a grievance against someone— _____ and _____ with them

Be patient & steadfast for the Lord is coming (vv.10-11)

Watch your words in light of judgment (v.12)

- Why does James bring this topic of oaths here?
- Is it wrong to make a vow to God?
- If it is ok to make a vow, then what exactly is James prohibiting?
  - Making a vow & not _____ through on it; We must be completely _____
  - _____ flippantly
- Is it wrong to swear on the Bible in a court of law?

Conclusion

(continued on back)

James 5:7-12